What Our Clients Say

"From Manila to Manchester - My Dream Came True" Maria Santos, Registered Nurse, Philippines to UK

"I was working in a hospital in Manila earning a fraction of what I earn now. European Healthcare Recruitment helped me pass my IELTS and OET, supported my NMC registration, and found me a position with an NHS Trust in Manchester. The salary is five times what I earned back home, and I'm bringing my family next year. I'm so grateful for their support through every step."

"Professional Service from Start to Finish" Ahmed Hassan, Staff Nurse, Egypt to Ireland

"The team handled everything - from my IELTS preparation to my NMBI registration and work permit. They prepared me for interviews and even helped me find accommodation in Dublin. I've been working here for 18 months now and recently received my permanent residence. Best decision I ever made."

"They Made the Impossible Possible" Priya Sharma, Healthcare Assistant to Registered Nurse, India to UK

"I started as a healthcare assistant, but they helped me upgrade my qualifications and register as a nurse. Now I'm a Band 5 nurse earning £32,000 per year with excellent benefits. They didn't just find me a job - they helped me build a career."

"Quick and Professional Hospitality Placement" Carlos Rodriguez, Hotel Receptionist, Spain to Switzerland

"Within three months of contacting them, I was working at a 5-star hotel in Zurich. The salary and tips are incredible, and the work environment is professional. They prepared me well for the interview and supported my visa application. Highly recommended!"

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How long does the entire process take? A: Typically 9-15 months from initial registration to starting work, depending on your English language level and chosen destination.

Q: What if I fail my English test? A: We provide unlimited resit preparation. Most students pass within 2-3 attempts.

Q: Can I bring my family? A: Yes! We provide dependent visa support. Spouses can usually work, and children can attend school.

Q: What if I don't pass the CBT or OSCE? A: You can retake the exams. We provide additional preparation and support for resits.

Q: Are the jobs genuine? A: Absolutely. We only work with verified employers who hold valid sponsorship licenses and have proven track records with international recruitment.

Q: What's the salary? A: UK nurses start at £28,000-£34,000. Irish nurses €30,000-€45,000. German nurses €35,000-€50,000. This is 5-10 times the salary in many developing countries.

Q: Is the work visa permanent? A: Initial work visas are usually 5 years (UK) or 2 years (Ireland), renewable, and lead to permanent residence eligibility.

Q: What if I'm not happy with my job? A: After your initial contract period, you can change employers. We provide ongoing career support.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How long does the process take? A: Typically 4-6 months from registration to departure, depending on your English level and visa processing times.

Q: Do I need previous hospitality experience? A: Yes, minimum 1-2 years of relevant experience is usually required. Some entry-level positions may accept less.

Q: What if my English isn't good enough? A: We provide comprehensive English training. Most students reach required levels within 2-3 months of intensive study.

Q: Will my employer provide accommodation? A: Many hospitality employers provide staff accommodation, especially outside major cities. We prioritize such positions.

Q: Can I change employers later? A: Yes, after your initial contract (usually 1-2 years), you can change employers while remaining on your work visa.

Q: What about tips? A: Tips vary by country and establishment. UK: 10-15% extra. Switzerland: substantial. Germany: modest. We'll explain expectations for your specific position.

Q: Is the job permanent? A: Initial contracts are usually 1-2 years, renewable. Your work visa allows you to work in the country for several years and leads to permanent residence eligibility.

Q: What if I don't like the job? A: We ensure you understand the role fully before accepting. However, if issues arise, we provide support to resolve them or find alternative positions.

Q: Can my spouse work? A: Usually yes! Dependent visa holders in UK, Ireland, and most EU countries have work rights. We provide job search support for spouses too.

Q: What's the cost of living? A: Varies by country. UK (outside London): £700-1,200/month. Germany: €800-1,400/month. Switzerland: CHF 1,500-2,500/month. Many employers provide accommodation and meals, significantly reducing costs.

- Knowledge of current policies and requirements
- Relationships with immigration authorities

Peace of Mind:

- Reduces stress and anxiety
- Saves time (40+ hours of work)
- Avoids costly mistakes
- Maximizes approval chances
- Provides expert guidance throughout

The Cost of Refusal:

- Lost visa fees (non-refundable)
- Lost job opportunity
- Delayed timeline (6-12 months)
- Additional application costs
- Emotional stress
- Total cost of refusal: £2,000-£5,000+

Our success rate of 95%+ means our service pays for itself by avoiding refusals.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Can you guarantee my visa will be approved? A: No service can legally guarantee visa approval as decisions are made by immigration authorities. However, our 95%+ success rate demonstrates our expertise in preparing strong applications.

Q: What if my visa is refused? A: We provide appeal support and reapplication guidance. In Premium and VIP packages, we'll help you reapply at no additional service fee (you pay only government fees).

Q: How long does visa processing take? A: UK: 3-8 weeks. Ireland: 8-12 weeks. Germany: 4-12 weeks. Netherlands: 2-4 weeks. Other countries vary.

Q: Can I apply for a visa before I have a job offer? A: Generally no - most work visas require a confirmed job offer first. We secure the job offer, then apply for the visa.

Q: Will you fill out my visa forms for me? A: We complete forms with you, ensuring accuracy. You review and approve everything before submission. This protects you legally and ensures accuracy.

Q: What if immigration laws change? A: We monitor immigration policy changes constantly and adapt our strategies. If changes affect your application, we inform you immediately and adjust our approach.

Q: Do I need an immigration lawyer? A: For standard employment visas, our service is sufficient. For complex cases (previous refusals, criminal records, complicated personal circumstances), we can refer you to immigration lawyers and work alongside them.

Q: Can I extend my visa later? A: Yes, most work visas are renewable. We provide extension support as part of Premium and VIP packages.

- Country and employer research
- Cultural preparation
- What to wear, how to present

- Salary negotiation coaching

During Interviews:

- We brief you before each interview
- Available for questions and support
- Debrief after each interview
- Provide feedback for improvement

Interview Formats:

- Phone/video interviews (most common)
- Assessment centers (some employers)
- In-person interviews (rare, usually after video)
- Multiple interview rounds possible

Job Offer

When You Receive an Offer:

- We review the contract thoroughly
- Explain all terms and conditions
- Compare salary to market rates
- Negotiate if appropriate
- Ensure fair treatment
- Advise on acceptance

Contract Review Includes:

- Job title and responsibilities
- Salary and payment schedule
- Working hours and shifts
- Holiday entitlement
- Benefits (accommodation, meals, pension, etc.)
- Notice period
- Probation period
- Training and development opportunities

You Make the Final Decision We provide advice, but you choose whether to accept.

PHASE 4: VISA PROCESSING (Weeks 20-28)

Why Clients Choose Us

"Complete Support - Nothing Missing" "Other agencies only help with job search or only help with visa. This company does everything. From English classes to settling in my new country. One company, complete service. No confusion, no stress." - Aisha, Nigeria to UK

"Honest and Realistic" "They told me the truth from the beginning. My English wasn't good enough, so I studied for 3 months first. Other agencies promised me quick placement without good English - that's a lie. These people are honest." - Kumar, India to Ireland

"Value for Money" "Yes, the fee seems high at first. But when I calculated everything included - English classes, exam preparation, job placement, visa support, arrival help - it's actually cheaper than doing everything separately. And less stressful." - Maria, Philippines to UK

"They Actually Care" "When I arrived in London, I was so scared and confused. They called me every week for the first 2 months. When I had a problem at work, they helped me talk to my manager. They really care about us." - Ahmed, Pakistan to UK

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How long does the whole process take? A: Typically 10-14 months from registration to starting work. Timeline varies based on:

- Your current English level (biggest factor)
- Professional registration requirements
- Job market demand in your field
- Visa processing times
- Your availability and commitment

Q: What if I fail my English exam? A: You can retake as many times as needed. We provide continued support. Most students pass within 2-3 attempts. Our preparation courses have high success rates.

Q: Can I choose which country I go to? A: Yes! We present options based on your qualifications and preferences. You make the final decision on country and employer.

Q: What if I don't like my job? A: You must complete your initial contract (usually 12-24 months). After that, you can change employers. We provide ongoing career support.

Q: Can my family come with me? A: Yes! Spouse and children can usually join. We provide family visa support. Additional costs apply for family visas.

Q: Do you help with accommodation? A: Yes, especially in Premium and VIP packages. Many healthcare and hospitality employers also provide accommodation.

Q: What if my visa is refused? A: Very rare with our applications (95%+ approval). If it happens, we analyze why and help you reapply (included in Premium/VIP packages).

Q: Are the jobs genuine? A: 100%. We only work with verified, licensed employers. All contracts reviewed. No fake jobs or scams.

Q: How much can I save? A: Depends on your spending, but typically:

- Healthcare (UK): £800-1,500/month
- Hospitality (UK): £600-1,000/month
- Healthcare (Germany): €1,000-2,000/month
- Hospitality (Switzerland): CHF 2,000-3,000/month

Q: Can I bring my parents? A: Not initially. After you get permanent residence (5 years UK, 2 years Ireland), you may be able to sponsor parents depending on country rules.

Q: What if I change my mind? A: You can withdraw at any time. Refund depends on stage of process (see refund policy above).

Q: Do I need to visit your office? A: No. Everything can be done online. We work with clients globally via video calls, WhatsApp, and email.
